The Pelham City Council convened at 7:00 p.m., Monday, May 15, 2000. Mayor Hayes called the meeting to order and Willard Payne led the invocation.

Mayor Hayes asked that the record show all members of the council present except Mike Dickens.

Jim Phillips moved to waive the oral reading of the May 1 minutes and approve as written. Karyl Rice seconded the motion and all approved.

During old business, a public hearing was held to consider Ordinance No. 135-112 changing the zoning from A-1 Agricultural District to Special District on property located off CR 33 adjacent to Hidden Creek. The applicant was James Hild Charitable Trust. Greg Gilbert represented the applicant and explained that the plan was to develop 5 acres into the same type carriage homes as Hidden Creek. No one spoke against the rezoning request. Karyl Rice reported that the vote was unanimous in Planning Commission to recommend rezoning. Karyl Rice moved to approve Ordinance No. 135-112 as presented. Jim Phillips seconded the motion and all approved.

There was no new business to come before the council.

With no further business, Ken Maynard moved to adjourn for Valley Elementary Youth Government Day. Jim Phillips seconded the motion and the meeting adjourned at 7:06 p.m.
